Notes:

- The parties report that a class settlement has been reached in the related state-court action and is in the process of being submitted for court approval. If approved, the settlement in the state-court action would resolve the claims asserted in the present case. The parties request that the present case be stayed pending approval of the state-court settlement.
- The court grants the parties request, such that the case shall be closed for administrative purposes only. If the state-court settlement is finalized, the parties shall inform the court and this case will be formally dismissed. If the state-court settlement is not finalized, the parties may inform the court and this case will be reopened.
